Bob Carr's only response to me was that Kevin doesn't usually think it is a good idea to go for grants under 500,000. But no one else feels that way so I am going to proceed. I talked to Ann McNamara briefly about this and she said it could be problematic. So she and I are going to call APHL next week and ask them how they envision this contract to work and then we will take that information to Ceci and see if she has any ideas.

Did Bob Carr have any insights on the handling of the funds? I checked with Grace and she thought that the UMASS overhead might not be as high as I was anticipating. But certainly it would be higher than nothing, if there is some mechanism by which we could receive funds directly... Have a good weekend. lh
